

See hope in action... see injustice... let's respond

November 14-16, 2008

Free Admission

River Park Church Auditorium - 3818 -14A St. SW, Calgary

7:00 PM Friday Nov 14th Sand and Sorrow

a look into Darfur, killing and crimes against a nation's own people, hear the call to be their hope

9:00 PM Friday Nov 14th New Year Baby

a journey to Cambodia to discover a family's past

1:00 PM Saturday Nov 15th Devotion and Defiance

the struggle for religious freedom in Tibet

2:00 PM Saturday, Nov 15th The Forgotten Woman Calgary Premiere

after Deepa Mehta's Water... this beautiful depiction of the harsh reality of widowhood in India

4:30 PM Saturday Nov 15th Tar Sands: The Selling of Alberta questions abound: from the pipefitter, to Peter Lougheed, to Washington lobbyist

7:00 PM Saturday Nov 15th The Battle of Chernobyl Calgary Premiere

the little known, dramatic story that followed the Chernobyl Nuclear Power Plant explosion

9:00 PM Saturday Nov 15th A Lesson of Belorussian Calgary Premiere

be inspired by youth organizing to be free, to achieve democracy for Belorussia

1:00 PM Sunday Nov 16th Tangier Treehouse Calgary Premiere

Moroccan street children build a treehouse and find themselves transformed

2:30 Sunday Nov 16th We are Together (Family Film: some subtitles)

the moving story of South African children overcoming hardship with music

4:30 PM Sunday Nov 16th The Unforeseen Calgary Premiere

when land development threatens Barton Spring, a fragile limestone aquifer, a community fights back 7:00 Sunday Nov 16th Triage: Dr. James Orbinski's Humanitarian Dilemma

Orbinski revisits Somalia, Rwanda and the Congo and reflects on lives lost and lives saved, seeking to make sense of it all

Visit the NGO Village

On site all weekend - Groups that make a difference

- Volunteer Opportunities
- Fair trade vendors

Conversations follow films: see website for leader info

Thanks to:

